Heading Out of Town this Summer?

If you are planning to travel this summer, be sure to call your local branch to place a travel notice on your account. Our Fraud Center works diligently to watch out for suspicious transactions and activity and may restrict your card for purchases outside of the state. To prevent any inconvenience, we urge you to let us know your travel dates and destination. If while on vacation you receive any notifications from our Fraud Center, be sure to respond promptly to prevent any card restrictions. Our Fraud Center may reach out to you via call, text, or email. If any of your contact info has changed, please let us know so you can be reached without complication.
